Throng Greets Governor and Applauds Liberty Loan

SONOMA TURNS OUT EN-MASSE LAST TUESDAY AND HEARS INSPIRING WORDS

Governor Wm. D. Stephens came to Sonoma last Tuesday to address the citizens of this valley on the Liberty Loan and he was accorded a splendid ovation. Despite the fact that he did not arrive for the lunch, arranged in his honor by about twenty Sonoma business men, he was on time for the meeting to the minute and found Union Hall packed to capacity.

The Boys Band from the State Home played several stirring numbers after which Governor Stephens, escorted to the platform by Hon. R. A. Poppe and Dr. Dawson began his inspiring talk in behalf of the Liberty Bonds.

The Governor is a most entertaining speaker and has the happy faculty of interspersing pleasantry into his theme and making a simple appeal despite the big thoughts which he puts over in eloquent style. His greetings were happy and included a welcome to the school children and a pretty compliment to the school teachers whom he said made the best wives in the world.

He declared it was always an honor to be greeted by school children and made him more anxious to live up to their ideals of what a California Governor should be.

There was something politically significant in his announcement that he had been touring the state as far north as Del Norte and so far had been in eight or nine counties into which no other California Governor had ever been. His excellency declared he believed in a duty to know the whole state and to talk of the present war situation wherever he could.

Of the war, he said we were in the war to the hilt and we must and will win a victory in accordance with the plans of America and the Allies and not in accordance with the wishes of Germany. "I love peace" said the governor, "but I would not have it today or tomorrow unless Germany was conquered." He confided that from private sources of official information he believed the war would last three years longer. He conceded that Germany knows the fighting game, but America was not fighting on the same principles and as we are in the war for humanity's sake, we will and must win.

It is the duty of the people of the United States to contribute for this righteous war's conduct and we must "go across with guns or come across with funds." Either lend money to the U. S. A. or be obliged later to give it all to Germany. No one has any business here, declared the Governor, unless he is in sympathy with this country and is willing to contribute to the cause. Enlist your dollars as well as your boys. Give all you can afford if you believe America should win and that the Stars and Stripes shall continue to guarantee liberty to your children. Let California be in the front rank of those states who are to aid Uncle Sam.

Grow grain and conserve food advised California's chief executive. The common warehouse supply should be kept for the boys at the front. Sign the food pledge. Substitute something for meat and wheat bread.

California is particularly effected by the outcome of this war, warned the governor, for our coast is poorly defended against an alien enemy.

We are fighting for honor and liberty's sake, for the prevention of such atrocities as occurred in Belgium. America needs munitions, clothing and food to fight the battle of right. We are all of one accord in the crisis. There is no mention of politics, said Governor Stephens, "It is no matter whether you are a Democrat or a Republican or something else. President Wilson, our Commander in Chief is entitled to the backing of every loyal American. You cannot be a slacker now. You are for the flag or against it. Respect the flag where ever you see it."

In closing he said, "Go to your bank and buy a Liberty Bond before night."

Up to the close of business Friday, Oct. 26, the local banks reported that Liberty Bond subscriptions totaled $98,300. Of this amount $88,000 was subscribed through the Sonoma Valley Bank and $10,300 through the First National.

The vocal music by the High school students and the Boys Band from Eldridge added to the meeting.

XMAS BOX BENEFIT SUCCESS

Red Cross Tea Last Saturday Was Largely Attended.

The interest of Sonoma Valley mothers, wives and sweethearts in the boys fighting for Uncle Sam on land and sea was evidenced by the large attendance at the Red Cross tea Saturday. It was a benefit for the Christmas boxes which are to be shipped by November first to all the Sonoma boys who are soldiers or sailors at home or abroad.

The Womans clubhouse was the scene of the big affair Saturday afternoon and attractive tea tables were set about the large auditorium which was decorated in the national colors and flowers.

At the entrance hall was a contribution box into which those who wished to help the fund and partake of refreshments dropped their silver offerings. Within the hall a table containing old jewelry and trinkets, given to aid the worthy cause proved most interesting and was liberally patronized. Lovers of the antique were enabled to pick up some rare pieces at reasonable prices while the old gold and silver left over, will be melted up and the money turned into the Xmas fund. $63.50 was realized from the contribution box at the entrance and about $7 from the sale of trinkets.

While tea was being served to the hundred or more ladies present, an entertaining and instructive program combining music and spirited talks by Mesdames G. H. Hotz, F. T. Duhring, C. Burlingame and R. Hotz were listened to. Miss Beth Lane contributed a piano solo, Mrs. Emmanan a song and Mrs. Julius Pachetti Jr. played. Harry Schiendeskamp rendered a violin solo and there were selections by the Mandolin club.

Mrs. G. H. Hotz reviewed the splendid record of Sonoma's Red Cross branch which has made two big shipments of garments and has now about $250 in the treasury. She paid high tribute to her colleagues.

Mrs. Duhring spoke on Food conservation and the pledges which were later eagerly signed in the lobby of the clubhouse.

Mrs. Ralph Hotz gave an interesting resume of work being done at the big headquarters in San Francisco which she visited the day previous.

In all it was a fine day, bubbling over with the true American spirit and reflective of this community interest in every phase of the work.

The refreshments contributed and served were delicious and much credit is due the quiet and unseen workers in the buffet kitchen who provided the good eats and served each table so courteously and efficiently. Many of these ladies will take an active interest in filling the Christmas boxes with goodies. Already fruit cakes are being baked and nuts, raisins, candies, dried fruits, smokes and dainty greetings will be sent to all our boys. It is understood that Glen Ellen and Kenwood Red Cross branches will take care of their own contingents and provide Xmas for them.

For the purpose of seeing that all get a Christmas box, it is necessary to have a complete list of our soldiers and our sailors. The Index-Tribune's list to date is as follows:

AMERICAN SPIRIT WAS STIRRED

Grammar School Liberty Loan Meeting Addressed by Notables

Interested spectators, a calm information seeking lot of folks were awakened to a high pitch of enthusiasm and patriotism last Friday night at the Grammar school auditorium when the war and Liberty Loan Bonds were earnestly discussed by Messrs. Miller of the Federal Reserve Bank, Corporal Fred Green of the British Royal Engineers and Ralph Thompson, one of the Four Minute Men.

The full meaning of this war's significance and this war's necessity was brought home to Sonoma residents by the speakers and there was an unmistakable stimulus given to the purchase of Liberty Bonds through the call to patriotism sounded by these splendid orators, rich in knowledge and experience of the vital subjects they discussed.

Mr. Miller reviewed the noble record of the last Liberty Loan and its great over subscription which he said was a pledge between the Government of the United States and its people. No flag waving patriotism counts. To day, said Miller, Money talks. Where a man's riches are, there is his heart is a well known adage. Germany has staked all on winning this war, said the speaker and that is the crux of German tenacity today. The savings and earnings of the enemy are in the war. Defeat would spell ruin for her so they are going on blindly and desperately to the end. Germany watched the first Liberty Loan in America and predicted it would be a banker's war, not a peoples war. They blundered in their estimate, declared Miller. The people of the United States responded nobly and volunteered to share all expense of this war. The needs of the critical hours now upon us were set forth by the speaker who then plunged into the subject of the history of the war and German atrocity with all the ardor within him. His words were fervid as he outlined the progress of the dastardly Pro-German plot, enumerating the vast preparations for the conspiracy of 25 years to enslave the world. To combat this and to finance the Allies in their fight to make the world a safe place in which to live, we are making, according to Mr. Miller, the greatest preparations the world has ever seen. Every man can afford to give his help. Wealth may take wing, but the Government's pledge is good. He referred to the undercurrent of danger in this country from masked Germans, claiming to be Americans, and said Germany boasted that with her loyal subjects to the number of 500,000 in America, there could never be a war. He said there were many true Americans of German extraction but declared that 500,000 lamp posts awaited any one guilty of treason to the U. S. A. He told of the sinister plots of the Kaiser's hirelings, among the enormities, the 10,000 cattle dead from anthrax in this country. Don't buy Liberty Bonds plead the speaker because they are the safest investment or because of the 4 per cent interest. Have no selfish motive but subscribe because our boys are on the way to stop unparalled atrocities. Our money and our hearts must back them up. The least we can do is to see them through.

After the deafening applause which followed Miller's magnificent appeal, Chairman Frank Sprague of the Council of State Defense, introduced Corporal Fred Green, an English soldier who returned last Spring from the front. Corporal Green told of the inhuman acts he had witnessed and of his experiences at the battles of the Marne and Ypres. He had with him many souvenirs of battle such as binoculars, deadly knives and schrapnel. He also exhibited the gas mask and explained its workings. His recital of German dishonor and brutalities in Belgium were blood curdling. He spoke of the tragic end of his best friend, a young motor cycle war dispatcher who had come from British Columbia with him to serve in the army and was foully murdered and tortured by the enemy. He recalled the deeds of awful violation which he had seen with his own eyes as the enemy swept Belgium, sparing neither women nor children, because that was part of the diabolical plan sanctioned by the Kaiser.

Corporal Green declared there must be no peace now "except on the unconditional surrender of Germany" (loud applause).

The closing address of the evening was made by Ralph Thompson, of Santa Rosa whose silver tongued oratory sounded a splendid call to all loyal Americans to end the war as it should be ended, by buying all they could possibly buy of Liberty Bonds.

The music furnished for the speaking by Mrs. Jas. McElney, Emmet Gottenberg and Frank Knolle was exceptionally fine and elicited much applause.

George Cassidy, a leading fruit grower of the Vineburg section, has been named to circulate the Rominger bill petition in this valley.

SONOMA BOY SUBMARINED

Bert Heugitt Formerly of Agua Caliente Has Thrilling Experience in War Zone.

Bert Heugitt who is in the transport service of Uncle Sam, writes to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Heugitt of Agua Caliente about his thrilling experiences during the last few months in the war zone.

Bert formerly went to school here and will be remembered by many old friends. He is now almost 30 years of age and is married. In his letter to the folks at home, written from somewhere in France, young Heugitt says he is in the best of health but as fourth engineer in the transport service he has had many very narrow escapes. He recalls one adventure which occurred a few months ago when his ship was submarined and he escaped with only the few clothes he was standing in.

He expects to be promoted to third engineer and says he likes his line of work very much despite its dangers. "It is very dangerous now," he writes "but such is life". I hope you will write to me, I often think of the days at home. There's many a night I think of you all and I am living in hopes that God will spare our lives that we may meet again". He closes by saying that his ship will probably be back in New York shortly and asks his parents to write to him there.

So each day there comes to light the heroism of Sonoma boys of whom many would lose trace if it were not for their welcome and interesting letters to their dear ones at home.

SWELL BANQUET BUT NO GOVERNOR

While a flying squadron of hospitalable Sonoma committeemen waited for Governor Stephens Tuesday at the bridge and twenty local business men gathered round a bounteous feast at the Union Hotel in his honor, the Governor, all unconscious of the entertainment prepared for him, was quietly dining with Warden Johnson at San Quentin prison.

Messrs. Watters, Wagon, Von Hacht and Sprague took a Ford and went down to the Black Point bridge where they kept vigil for several hours in expectation of being the escort of the Governor and saying "Welcome to our city". As he failed to arrive, they began to suspect a misunderstanding and went on to Novato. There they waited and waited, telephones to San Rafael failing to clear up the mystery. After being on the anxious seat for a long time, knowing the lunch in Sonoma was growing cold and the twenty Sonoma business men impatient, they about gave it up when bravo!—the Governor whizzed by in his big Packard and never even hesitated at Novato. The Ford however gave merry chase and it all ended happily. Governor Stephens apologized, saying that he knew nothing of the lunch program and he was quite sure he missed a good lunch, which he did.

The dining room of the Union was in gala patriotic attire and the menu was delicious, including soup, salad, entree, chicken and dainty desserts. All who attended enjoyed the repast.

GUESTS AT HEALDSBURG'S GOVERNOR'S BANQUET

Messrs. Jos. Keechler, Sam Lewis, W. H. Daly and H. J. Leonard of Eldridge attended the Governor's banquet at Healdsburg Wednesday night.

George Cassidy, a leading fruit grower of the Vineburg section, has been named to circulate the Rominger bill petition in this valley.

Plot to Poison Our Soldiers at American Lake

Mysterious Deaths of Horses and Mules and Attempt to Poison Soldiers Local Boys on Guard Have Orders to Shoot Traitors

Word comes from American Lake where many Sonoma Valley boys are encamped that horses and mules have been dying like flies and upon investigation, two suspects were caught under suspicious circumstances and shot.

Vigilant guard duty and a watch set for more treasonable acts within the lines resulted in the discovery of a man leaping from the cantonment bakery window. His efforts to escape resulted in his being shot by the guards and upon investigation it was found that an entire batch of bread had been poisoned. Sonoma boys are among those guarding the camp night and day and the strictest rules now prevail.

CITATION TODAY IN WEISE CASE

Supervisory Election Matters to be Aired in Court Again.

Wm. Ewart, who failed to defeat J. H. Weise at the last Supervisory election has filed a new action asking that the Superior Court annul the election of last November, to set aside and annul the findings of the Supervisors setting as a Board of Election Commissioners and to cancel the certificate of election issued to and held by Mr. Weise. He also prays for such other relief and costs as may be due him. Ewart's voluminous document states in many paragraphs that he is over 21 years of age and that by reason of said proceedings of the last election, neither J. H. Weise nor Wm. Ewart was elected to the office of Supervisor for the First District of Sonoma county; that neither Weise nor Ewart or any other person received a plurality of the votes cast, that two candidates and only two, ran for said office. Ewart filed a lengthy document, and a citation directing both parties to appear in court today was issued by Judge Emmett Seawell. The action is preliminary to Ewart's hopes of getting another expensive special election called, putting the tax-payers to expense and throwing the community into another needless political fight.

Arthur Rambo who has been in the hospital in San Francisco for several weeks is slowly improving.

Mr. Rambo was making an effective campaign against the mosquito won much commendation.

Sonoma a Prize Winner

If You Own Sonoma County land, you should feel elated over the fact that Imperial Sonoma has won the prize for the best apples at the Land Show. The value of our land is bound to rise with the knowledge of its adaptability for apple growing. Sebastopol has for many years gone into the apple business on a big scale and has successfully exploited a resource which has been a help to the entire county. We all have benefitted by the publicity of Sebastopol's apple shows and Cloverdale's Citrus Fair, the latter a fine advertisement of climate where there was hitherto thought to be no real climate so far north of the Tehachapi.

Now we are all to benefit by the latest award for Sonoma county apples and it should awaken all the pride within us to carry the good work up and onward wherever the soil is adapted to Gravensteins and other select varieties of the classic fruit. The lessons our growers are learning from the apple inspector should bring up the standard of apples and lead to the getting of better prices. The rigid classification will do away with the damage which might now be done by careless shippers in seeking to sell inferior fruit on the strength of Sonoma county's name. First grade apples will be first grade quality the whole state over and we are confident that first grade Sonoma apples will be finer flavored, more luscious and better for shipment than the average county's product.

With the assurance that Sonoma county prunes are giving Santa Clara prunes a run for their money and with the inside information that for many a day they have nestled under a Santa Clara county label, their real origin unsung, it is high time for Sonoma to awaken to the value of demonstrating what our land can do and give kindly Mother Nature the boost she deserves for her lavish gifts to this beautiful Sonoma section. Our apple growers are going about it right. Let us sing their praises.

Enlisted Men Must Not Get Drinks

The Honor of Sonoma Valley in obeying the edict of the Government, not to sell drinks to enlisted men must be unqualifiedly upheld and no suspicion must attach itself to our resorts or any resident of this section.

The enlisted men who have been unable to obtain liquor in other places have begun to come over here and try and hoodwink our people into supplying them with drinks. In some instances they showed evidence of having indulged in liquor before their arrival here and at several of our leading resorts were advised to move on. No one can afford to have any reflection cast upon their place of business at this time, for the penalty is not only severe but it is downright traitorous to disobey the edict of Uncle Sam and would be playing right into the hands of the enemy. If Uncle Sam cannot control his men and have the unqualified backing of every loyal citizen that fact is going to be noted by those hoping for our defeat. Uncle Sam must and will be obeyed.

It is a hard problem in instances where someone in civilian clothes travels with soldiers or sailors and purchases liquor for them. The man who sells the liquor under such circumstances may be entirely innocent and be shamefully imposed on. All he can do is to use every precaution possible and if at all suspicious, to refuse to be a party to the treasonable act. It is claimed that a big crowd of enlisted joy riders recently sent out a flying squadron to see if any liquor could be negotiated in this valley. Their plot was nipped in the bud and the Napa Chief of police turned them back on advice from our local deputy sheriff.

Sonoma Valley is patriotic to the heart and we feel confident that the the war laws and all laws will be obeyed to the strictest letter by those who want to see Uncle Sam win. The law breaker will be classed as a traitor and dealt with by the Federal authorities accordingly.

A Feather in Our Cap

The Discovery and marketing of barley flour by Sonoma county's Golden Eagle Milling Company is a distinct honor to this section, to the State of California, and a boon to the world where at this time wheat must be conserved and a cheaper nutritious bread substituted. The Petaluma concern by a process worked out by its own men have put this product within the reach of all, guaranteeing it to be high in food value and cheap in price. The fact that it is made only in Petaluma and so advertised will do much to make Petaluma's patriotism known throughout this country and also throughout the lands of our allies.

The fact that the process has been worked out by the necessities of the hour is indicative of what will be done along similar lines by a country who has heretofore but partially realized its wonderful resources. It has been said that American ingenuity and resourcefulness will win the war and the best brains of this favored land are at work on problems of great import. The discovery of the flour which is to lower the cost of bread is a step in the right direction and a feather in the cap of California.

Itching to Be "Bone Dry"

The California Liberator, avowedly and unequivocally "dry" already gives evidence of how percentage "wets" who hope to save the wine and hop industry by supporting the Rominger bill, will "get theirs". Here are some quotations from the Hitchhiker organ.

"The drinking of wine as they do in France, leads to amazing increase in the drinking of distilled liquors. Wine-drinking France leads the United States in its per capita consumption of stronger intoxicants, and the whole world in consumption of alcoholic drink in terms of pure alcohol."

"Napa county, the St Helena district, is no exception to the rule. 'Alcohol has left its blight upon the best of Napa county's life.'"

"One of the arguments advanced against Prohibition and urged as a remedy for the evils of the liquor traffic, is that there would be no harm in the use of alcoholic beverages if America gave up the drinking of distilled liquor, and drank light wines and beers—as they drink wine in France and beer in Germany."

The argument sounds all right until the light of investigation is turned upon it."

"In France the experience has been that the more 'light wines' drunk the more distilled liquors. While in Germany the experience is, the greater the consumption of beer, the greater the consumption of distilled spirits."

Beer has not proved a cure for drunkenness in Germany nor wine has not proved a cure for drunkenness in France."

Verily they would give their life's blood to destroy wine and beer as Rominger himself admitted.

After November first, letter postage will be 3 cents so we will appreciate your cooperation in helping us cut down the sending of bills. If you are uncertain about your subscription date, come in and we will look it up for you. Do not wait to get a bill. Bills cost money. Help keep down the possibility of a rise in subscription price by being prompt. Sending bills only adds to the cost and with paper still going up in price, the newspaper readers must do their "bit" to prevent an increase in rates. The Index-Tribune is now less than 4 cents per week, a wonderful lot of reading and information for the money. If we send you a bill with 3 cents postage and the cost of the envelope, that will figure 4 cents. See the point?

Our Progressive neighbor, Calistoga, believes that a water supply for domestic purposes and for fire protection is a vital part of future success. The people there are negotiating a municipal purchase of a privately owned water concern for $40,000.

Calistoga with its doors unlocked through the building of highway is making the most of it. It not only proposes to get the automobile and other traffic, but it intends to attract a permanent resident population and so has straightway set out to pave its streets and improve everything which suffers in contrast with other up-to-date communities. Calistoga's spirit may well be emulated.

The Fact that Sonoma's bank deposits on June 20th of this year was $875,000 shows that our people are prosperous.

Frederick Quein, a former resident of the Glen Ellen section, died at his home in Napa this week and many old time friends from here attended the funeral. Mr. Quein was a native of France but came to this country when very young. He was one of Lincoln's volunteers and a brave soldier of the civil war. A widow, five sons and a daughter survive him. The Brands, Gaiges, Poppes, Cromwells and Froments were among those who attended the funeral from this valley.

Mrs. J. H. Coops has received a letter from her aunt in Denmark who declares that the war is being severely felt there and food is hard to get.

ASKS DIVORCE AFTER LONG SEPARATION

Through his attorney, Robert A. Poppe, a divorce has been sought by George W. Butler from Minerva Butler in the Superior Court of this county. Butler and his wife have been separated for the past nine years. He bought a ranch in an inaccessible spot near Cave Dale and the hardship was too much for a woman so the wife declared, she therefore left him and went to San Francisco where she now holds a good position so plaintiff alleges. Mr. Butler when not busy on his own place is employed by Robt. Hill at Eldridge.

STILL RICHER GROWS HISTORY

Lachryma Montis Should Be a Public Park. Name On First Wine Label In California.

Chas. A. Wetmore, one of California's pioneer viticulturists who served on the old State Viticultural Commission with Arpad Haraszthy and was a personal friend of General Vallejo, has written an article for the Wine-Salers and Retailers Review commending the purchase of the old Vallejo home by the State of California and telling an interesting bit of history in connection with the name, Lachryma Montis. The article is in part as follows:

Lachryma Montis Should be a Public Park.

(By CHAS. A. WETMORE)

"Sonoma, Oct. 15.—The residents of Sonoma City are discussing the matter of the purchase by the State of the old home of the late General Vallejo at Sonoma as a memorial park and landmark. "Lachryma Montis," as the beautiful old home is known, was prominently identified with the early history of California. It is now the property of the heirs of General Vallejo."

The writer of this article has noticed with pleasure the above news item published in the San Francisco Examiner. There is a story connected with the name "Lachryma Montis" that should interest the lovers of good California vintages.

The writer narrates that in 1880 he unconsciously christened the wine from his Livermore vineyard as "Ozo del Monte" (Eye of the Mountain) from the fact that a clear pool of water at the base of the mountain on his place suggested an eye gleaming up, even to the eyelashes whose fringe seemed to be imitated by the feathery trees which bordered the spring and were reflected along the edge of the pool. So the wine was first christened after this poetic conception and later it seemed more poetical to call it "Tear of the Mountain" "Lachryma Montis." So the Livermore wine was proudly named "Lachryma Montis" by the elated grower. "In a short time, however, his conceit was grievously wounded, when Arpad Haraszthy, who was a son-in-law of General Vallejo, said to him: "The general is going to give you a piece of his mind when he sees you. You have stolen the name of his vineyard and his wine."

"This was a shock to the writer, because he esteemed the general most highly and respected him above all the early Californians, whose history ante-dated the American flag on this Coast. It seemed to him almost impossible that he should have invented a name that had been previously used, the evolution of which had been induced by the circumstances as related.

Mr. Haraszthy, however, produced an old bottle bearing the label of General Vallejo, with the name Lachryma Montis on it, and said that it was the translation into Latin words of an Indian name for the spring on the home place near Sonoma.

The writer then learned for the first time what was probably and most certainly the first wine label printed for California vintages. It was not much in use, but was claimed by the general, who in his wrath at the writer's supposed theft had said: "Lachryma Montis! Tell him to call his wine Lachryma Pumpis."

The writer tells this story because it revives the memory of what was undoubtedly the first attempt to distinguish a California wine by a label. It was there that Arpad Haraszthy's father, Agoston, no doubt tasted wine before he became the pioneer of the first great development of viticulture. It was there that Arpad got his first inspirations to excel as a winemaker, together with the beautiful daughter of General Vallejo for a wife. It was there that his father dedicated him to the service of the State by sending him to France to work in the champagne cellars and wrest the secrets of fine wines for the benefit of the coming generations."

"General Vallejo's name has already been honored as the name of a thriving city in California—and his friendship for Americans has gone into history. The people of Sonoma could not do anything so appropriate as advocate the old home at "Lachryma Montis" as a public park."

Cadillac
Standard of the World

New Type 57 Cadillac Eight Is Here

You have enthused over Cadillacs of former years. This new model will result in even greater enthusiasm. Judged from any standpoint—Style, performance and construction—it surpasses your most critical expectations.

You are safe in expecting great things from this new Cadillac. You know the goodness that has gone before.

You know that for three years now, the Cadillac has concentrated on the one type—the V-type eight cylinder.

In all that time Cadillac engineers have devoted their energies and their skill to the perfection of a principle, and to the raising of a standard.

The Eight Cylinder Cadillac embodying that principle now enters its fourth year and its fiftieth thousand.

How much this means, you who drive Cadillacs and who know Cadillac thoroughness, can easily understand.

It means of course that you gain immensely by every one of the forty-nine thousand that have gone before.

All the experience gained and all the excellence attained must culminate in the greatest of all cars which a great factory has ever built.

Those who know the Cadillac, know it for certain refinements of performance—peculiar to itself.

These are Cadillac marks of distinction—recognized and admitted everywhere—raised to a new pitch of perfection.

The new car is brought closer than ever to that ideal in which the motive power is completely forgotten.

You who have reveled in the superlative smoothness that enable you to relax both mind and body will find a new measure of relaxation now.

You who have enthused before in its mastery over the hills, will renew your enthusiasm.

The new Cadillac adds honor to a long line of fine cars.

We believe that it approaches more closely the real greatness than any motor car the world has yet produced.

ELDRIDGE

A. S. Luce of the Sonoma Valley Bank was at the Home several days last week in the interest of Liberty Bonds. Mr. Luce is a convincing talker, and succeeded in placing a satisfying allotment.

All of the owners of motor vehicles at the Home would like to see a little "pep" injected in the road work "promised" between Caliente and Melita as the road to Santa Rosa at present is not calculated to inspire any one with dreams of being smothered in a feather bed.

Your correspondent received a letter from "Bill" Boggess who is in Co. 14, 166 Depot Brigade at Camp Lewis Washington in which he says the setting up exercises are rapidly taking the kinks out of his back and that the hash on a par value with that at the home. Bill will be more cheerful in his next letter as his wife has a leave of absence and will spend the month of November in his immediate vicinity.

R. Q. Wickham is busily engaged with trying to lead the "Mulligans" on to success, but so far his efforts have proved rather discouraging. We would advise that he try not overbidding his hand and "thus bring home the bacon."
